Portable Electronic Devices and Related Equipment

The School District of Waupaca may provide portable electronic devices (e.g. iPad, Kindle, or Chromebook) and related equipment to students for educational use for a limited period of time. The District's Acceptable Use Policy governing the acceptable use of technology applies to the use of portable electronic devices at all times whether on or off District property.

The student and his/her parent/guardian are responsible for the safety and security of the borrowed devices and equipment. This shall include full liability for the cost of repair or replacement, at the discretion of the District, within thirty (30) days.

Each check out of equipment shall include the signed and dated Portable Electronic Devices and Equipment Release Form (Policy Code 367.2 - R1).
