

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF WAUPACA

SERIES 700 SUPPORT SERVICE

CODE: 772.1

DISTRICT CELLULAR TELEPHONES

School district cellular telephones are intended to be used for safety, emergency or when other forms of communication are not available for school related business. They shall not be used for personal business by students or staff. Public telephones are provided in all school buildings for any calls not related to school business.

Standard telephone service is still considered the main means for verbal communications in most situations.

School district administrators and staff may place long distance calls on District cellular telephones when necessary in the above situations. In such cases, the telephone calls shall be recorded and reported to the Business Manager or his/her designee. Students shall not be permitted to place long distance calls on District cellular telephones except in emergency situations as authorized by the principal or instructor.
