CODE: 852.1

BULLETIN BOARDS AND THE POSTING OF MATERIAL

The bulletin boards, located in the various school buildings, have been authorized, purchased, and erected by the Board of Education and are under the care, control and management of the Board of Education for the purpose of posting communications and notices pertaining to the maintenance and operation of the schools. The Board assigns the responsibility for maintaining and controlling the bulletin boards in each building to the building principal.

Notices shall not contain profanity or other statements of a derogatory or discriminating nature.

The building principal, or his/her designee, may immediately remove any unauthorized notices and/or communications.

This policy is intended to include the use of electronic bulletin boards.
