

Ms. Draeger's Newsletter

Thanksgiving:

This week your child has been learning about the 1st Thanksgiving. They have learned about why the Pilgrims left England and that they sailed on a ship called the Mayflower. The students learned that their first winter was a very harsh one and when spring came they met a Native American friend named Squanto. On Tuesday we will be having our Shared Feast with Mrs. Townsend's class. The students will either be a Pilgrim or a Native American just like the 1st Thanksgiving. I told the students it would be great if they could retell the 1st Thanksgiving story to your family when you sit down for your great feast next week! They might even test you to see if you know some facts about the 1st Thanksgiving :)
